

Notable alumni

- Joshua Bolten - current White House Chief of Staff
- Erin Burnett - CNBC Host
- Jon Corzine - Governor of the State of New Jersey.
- Michael Cohrs - Head of Global Banking at Deutsche Bank
- Emanuel Derman - Author of My Life as a Quant and co-developer of the Black-Derman-Toy model.
- Jim Cramer - founder of TheStreet.com, best selling author, and host of Mad Money on CNBC
- Henry H. Fowler - 58th United States Secretary of the Treasury (1965-1969)
- Edward Lampert- Hedge Fund Manager of ESL Investments. Brought K-Mart out of Bankruptcy in 2003.
- Ashwin Navin - President and co-founder of BitTorrent, Inc.
- Abby Joseph Cohen - Perma-bull market forecaster formerly of Drexel Burnham Lambert
- Sacha Baron Cohen - Despite reports by several independent media sources that this well-known comedian is indeed a Goldman alumnus, there has been some controversy over the original source of these claims, with speculation that the supposedly independent sources had themselves used Wikipedia as their own source.^[32] Goldman Sachs has never publicly denied having employed Cohen.
- Ocado - 3 Founders of first UK online supermarket were all former Fixed Income Traders at Goldman Sachs London
- George Herbert Walker IV - member of the Bush family and current managing director at Lehman Brothers
- Robert Zoellick - United States Trade Representative (2001-2005), Deputy Secretary of State (2005-2006), World Bank President.
- Mark Carney - Current Governor of the Bank of Canada
- Henry Paulson - Current United States Treasury Secretary.
- Robert Rubin - Former United States Treasury Secretary, ex-Chairman of Citigroup.
- Charlie Haas - Wrestler, who is working for World Wrestling Entertainment.
- Malcolm Turnbull - Australian politician, currently the federal leader of the Liberal Party of Australia. Former managing director and later a partner of Goldman Sachs in Australia.
- John Thain - Chairman and CEO, Merrill Lynch, and former chairman of the NYSE.
- Robert Steel - Chairman and President,